

THE GALES MEETINGS.

Men, Women and Children Are Invited To-night—Let All Turn Out.

Those who assembled in Central Presbyterian Church last night heard a fine, calm, searching sermon. The audience was composed of a class to whom the word of God is as sparkling, cool water is to a famishing people. It was indeed a powerful presentation of real, practical facts touching in their meets and bounds the christian—real or professed, the sinner, known to men or only to God. All present were personally dealt with and the application could be made to every one—to the true and tried, quickening in its effect and stimulating in its force; to the indifferent and lukewarm with the idea of adding life and zeal; to those who know not the goodness of God with convicting power and converting effect. The services to-day begin with cottage prayer meetings in several of our homes this morning at 9:30 o'clock. At 3 o'clock in Central Presbyterian Church a praise and prayer service, followed with a Bible study. At 7 o'clock in the same church the evening service begins with a song service, lasting thirty minutes, conducted by Professor J. H. Rowland. At 7:30 the regular service begins—Mr. W. R. Gales preaching.

Heretofore these evening meetings have been for men only. To-night a change will be made. An invitation is given to the public generally, men, women and children, to be present. This should insure a large audience to-night.

The singing is an especial feature of these meetings and all who can are cordially invited to assist. Seats free and a cordial greeting and welcome will be extended all.

Mr. Gales can only remain a few days longer, so make good use of the time and help by prayer and effort the cause of Christ and the uplifting of humanity.

By request, the merchants will close their places of business at 7 o'clock, so that they and their clerks will have an opportunity to attend the meeting.

MRS. NAT POYNTZ.

Death Claims a Former Citizen of Maysville at Orlando, Fla., after a Brief Illness.

A telegram received here yesterday shortly before noon brought the sad news of the death of Mrs. Vina Strode Poyntz, wife of Mr. Nat Poyntz, of Orlando, Florida, at 8 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, December 4th.

She had been ill about two weeks, but her relatives here were not aware that her condition was dangerous.

The early life of the deceased was spent in this city, where she was greatly loved and admired by a wide circle of friends. She and Mr. Poyntz were united in marriage while he was a resident of this place. For many years they have made their home at Orlando. She leaves three children, all daughters.

The remains will be brought here for interment, and the burial will probably take place next Saturday or Sunday. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Death of a Former Citizen of Mason.

J. W. Hudson, formerly a citizen of Maysville, died Monday, December 3rd, at his home in Poplar Plains, aged about fifty years. His remains were interred yesterday at Flemingsburg. His wife, who was a Miss Wood, of this county, survives him, and he leaves five children. The News says: "He was a man who had many friends; was honorable, social, and energetic to the extent his feeble health would allow. For several years he served most acceptably as postmaster at Poplar Plains."

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Coal! Coal!

Try the best coal in the market. The People's Coal Company sells the genuine Syracuse shaft coal. It makes no clinkers and holds fire all night. Try it and be convinced and you will use no other. Delivered at 8 cents in lots not less than fifty bushels. Office near the C. and O. depot.

Six judgments were rendered against the city Tuesday by Squire Belfry in suits to recover fines assessed in the Police Court against parties for offenses committed outside the city limits. The parties and the amounts are as follows: Carrie McCann, $8.90; J. F. Price, $8.90; Andrew Daulton, $28.60; Timothy Spencer, $27.90; Charles Hoops, $8.90; Lem Yazell, $8.90.

Never has my stock been as complete as now. Prices low down.

THE Fiscal Court of Franklin County has adopted an order which provides that all turnpikes hereafter constructed in that county by county aid shall be free to the traveling public and shall be maintained under the general road laws of the Commonwealth. Non-dividend-paying roads may be declared free by the stockholders and the Fiscal Court, and roads in course of construction may be declared free through the same agency.

THEY GUYED HIM.

The Bourbon County Man Who Married Negro Shoots a Railroad at Paris.

An item was published yesterday telling of the marriage of J. W. Howerton, a white man living in Bourbon County, and Matilda Taylor, a negro woman from Millersburg. The knot was tied at Cincinnati the day before.

The couple returned to Paris yesterday morning, arriving there on the 11 o'clock train. Shortly afterwards, while Jean Houston, a railroad, yard switchman at that point, was "guying" Howerton and his "baby" as he called his wife, Howerton became enraged, and drawing his pistol shot at Houston.

His aim was not good, however, and the ball missed Houston, but wounded an innocent spectator. The wounded man is "Butch" Coughlin, fireman on the yard engine at Paris. The bullet struck him on one of the legs, just below the knee, inflicting a painful wound.

The crowd became so incensed over the shooting that they came near mobbing Howerton before the officers could get to jail with him.

Howerton's friends account for his infatuation with the negro woman by stating that he is not exactly right, mentally.

LADENBURGER & SONS, of Dover, made a shipment of thirty barrels of crab cider one day recently, and have several carloads left.

Now is the time for the merchant who wants to dispose of his Christmas goods to advertise. No better medium for this than the BULLETIN. Try it.

JOSEPH BODE, JR., has bought the barber shop adjoining Kackley's store, and solicits a share of the public patronage. A clean towel for every patron. Everything neat and clean. Give him a trial.

ATTORNEY J. NOEL JOHNSON, of Vanceburg, has been employed to assist the Commonwealth's Attorney in the prosecution of Wesley Osborne, who murdered young Hiram Adams, at Cottageville last July.

THE story sent out from Berea, Ky., and published in certain papers of Cincinnati, Louisville and Lexington, to the effect that an attempt had been made to blow up the college at that place, proves a fake.

THE suit of John Cox, of Catlettsburg, against the Adams Express Company to recover a lottery ticket placed in the company's hands for collection, was dismissed by the United States Court at Covington.

LEXINGTON Transcript: "It is said that Miss Corinne Blackburn, daughter of Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, who has been abroad for the past ten months, is quite the toast. The brother of the Khedive of Egypt has become so enamored of the fair Kentuckian that he has invited Miss Blackburn and a party of friends to spend three months at his place at Cairo."

ROBERT CAMPBELL, living three miles east of West Union, has sued his wife for a divorce. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Miss Ruth Kincaid, daughter of R. J. Kincaid, the well known manufacturer. Mrs. Campbell assigns no cause for leaving her husband, except she does not fancy living in the country. Her husband refused to locate in town and she left him. They were married a year ago.

THE News-Herald, of Hillsboro, strikes the nail squarely on the head and tells the whole truth when it says: "The Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth narrow gauge is not paying and must be extended to Portsmouth or the coal fields or be abandoned. If they could strike the river at Ripley and run up the easy river grade to Portsmouth, it would be a paying road from the start." Aberdeen would be a good point also for the road to strike the river.
